

Liability

Westbound Australia does not accept any liability for any loss, damage, inconvenience, delay, injury, sickness, irregularity, accident or expense due to inaccuracy or misdescription or however caused by or arising out of provision of services or failure to provide services.

Westbound Australia does not accept any responsibility for acts of nature that prevent the carrying out of services and clients take the tours knowing that the unpredictability of nature is accepted.

Westbound Australia does not accept any responsibility for losses or additional expenses due to delay in the provision of services by other operators, however these delays are caused. Neither does Westbound Australia except responsibility for changes to prices or the withdrawal of services by sub-contractors. Under such circumstances Westbound Australia reserves the right to utilise an alternative operator.

Westbound Australia reserves the right to delete or cancel any tour offered. Full refunds given or alternative tours offered. Adult: 13 years and over. Children 12 years and under.

All tours approved by Department of Transport, but subject to change of Government discretion.

*Tours do not run Christmas Day, Boxing Day, New Years Day or Good Friday.